DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-20 are in the application.
2. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the arrangement providing a source of fluid in a gaseous state as in claim 2 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Art Unit: 3617

4. Claims 10-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 15 there is no proper antecedent for "the liquid port".

In claim 10, it is not clear how the "momentum within the liquid stream boundary layer" is increased by moving the reciprocating member in a linearly reciprocating manner". It is not the movement of the reciprocating member that affects the momentum within the boundary layer, but the fluid expelled therein.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1-3, 16, 18, 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Quanonne.

Quanonne discloses a watercraft including a fluid chamber and at least one fluid port and discloses repetitively increasing and decreasing the internal volume of a fluid chamber such that fluid is expelled from a fluid port into the boundary layer on the hull.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 9, 17 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Quanonne.

Art Unit: 3617

Quanonne discloses that the compressors in the watercraft are operated through a transmission means by any suitable motor. The use of an electric motor would have been an obvious matter of design choice to one skilled in the art. Such a motor would provide an electromagnetic actuator.

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 5-8 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Culbertson discloses a reciprocating propulsion unit injecting air into the boundary layer of the hull. Merrill discloses drawing a fluid from the environment and ejecting the fluid in the boundary layer of the vehicle. Oshima discloses a device to suppress drag in a watercraft. Sfredda discloses a propulsion system using reciprocating engines.
